Classic country home with a contemporary flair. This design from Architect Donald A. Gardner gives every room a special view from the gorgeous windows throughout the home. The high ceilings create a warm and bright interior with wonderful woodwork details, and Rumford fireplaces in both the living room and the master suite. This beautifully constructed 4 bedroom home offers geothermal heating and cooling, superior double-wall construction, solid oak doors, hardwood floors. Nestled on over 10 acres with a separate workshop / coach house as well as garden shed and horse paddock. Wander the Bruce Trail from your own backyard filled with mature flower gardens and multiple outdoor living spaces.
